

Ph.D. course – Application Form

Ph.D. course

DR437E Governance in the High North: implications for Arctic private and public sector

April 1st – 5th (Bodø, Norway)

Deadline for registration: February 1st 2019.

Maximum number of participants will be 15. Decision concerning admission is made according to the time of registration among the qualified applicants.

Personal information

Surname (family name)		Given name (in full)
Date of birth (Day – Month – Year)	Norwegian ID nr:	Nationality	Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female
Address
ZIP/Postal code	City
Telephone	Email
Current employer/Institution of affiliation	Reference person/telephone

Please indicate the field you plan to study for your degree

--

Faculty/department address

--

To be considered for admission, applicants are required to submit:

Documents to be enclosed:	Enclosure no:
1. Curriculum Vitae

2. Certified copies of relevant diplomas/transcripts Official transcripts from each college, university, or other institution of higher learning attended. Students with academic records from schools outside Norway must provide a thorough explanation of the programs' degree requirements and grading system (not for PhD students already registered at HHN)
3. Short description of his/her PhD research project (2-3 pages) demonstrating the relevance of the course for his/her PhD project development

Entry qualifications

Qualifications held
Name of University	Dates attended/Degree obtained (eg 1995-1999)	Degree(s) awarded and class of degree
Qualifications pending
Name of University	Dates attending	Degree / Planned date of completion

I declare that the statements on this form are correct

Date	Signature
-------------	------------------

Please send your application to the following address:

Grete Ingemann Knudsen (grete.i.knudsen@nord.no)
Business School
Nord University
N-8049 Bodø
Norway