

2017 High North Dialogue Side Event

High North's Young Scholars workshop

Time: April 7, 12:30 – 15:00

Location: Nord University Campus, Room A134

Participants: PhD-students from the High North Dialogue course and young scholars from the conference.

Key questions:

- Young scholars in the Arctic academic field: who are they and where are they? What do they research about? What room is there for young scholars?
- what type of transferable skills are needed?
- what possible venues/meeting places/networks can be utilised?
- what can upcoming scholars do to increase chances of future success?
- what are some of the barriers faced, both academically and professionally?

Contact person: Andreas Østhagen, the Arctic institute, andreas.osthagen@thearcticinstitute.org